A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea. "Risings" or sour "risings" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

ANOTHER COXEY ARMY.

A dispatch from Sault Ste Marie says that Joseph Sechler Coxey, leader of the famous "hobo" march across the country to Washington in 1894, is planning to start a new pilgrimage, but he refused to tell its destination or its purpose.

Coxey is quoted as saying:

"I expected soon to be worth several million dollars and I am preparing to take up my campaign of education where I was forced to leave it several years ago. I shall conduct this campaign on new and original lines and in a way that will be certain to attract the attention of the nation. I will travel with an entire train of cars and a tent capable of seating many thousands, and my coming will be advertised in advance, exactly like a great circus. I will also carry with me a complete company of high-priced performers, who will furnish entertainment for the crowds during the hours when I am not speaking, so that 'Coxey Day' will be a general holiday for miles around every town I visit.

"This country is becoming ripe for just such a great movement. The indications point that way. Look at Roosevelt. In some respects he is more radical than I ever dared to be, and he is the head of the great conservative party of the country. The President is just now busy trying to make it appear that he is being persecuted by a conspiracy of corporation magnates. He is doing this because he knows that it is the popular thing to do, that the people are in the humor to demand radical actions and all this would be very pleasing and satisfactory if we could believe that the President is sincere. But is he sincere? In view of the revelations in relation to his dealing with Harriman, taking his own statements for our evidence, we have a right to entertain doubts. I will believe in his sincerity when, and only when, a few of the railroad magnates who have violated the laws are in the penitentiary.

"In my crusade I shall advocate my non-interest-bearing bond plan, which would furnish an elastic currency that would forever banish the danger of money stringency, as it would allow States, municipalities and townships to utilize and legalize their own credit. I would also advocate the government ownership of public utilities. I am 10 years ahead of Mr. Bryan on this platform. I refer to my testimony before the ways and means committee in Washington in 1895, when I said that the great question was whether the railroads are going to own this government or the government is going to own the railways, and I predicted in 10 years the great issue of government ownership would come to a head. In the meantime, I said the country would experiment with government control until it found that government control would not control. My words are being fulfilled, and you will see that they will be fulfilled to the end. In 8 or 10 years from today Coxey will not be considered such a radical as he has been in the past."

Eczema.

For the good of those suffering with eczema or other such trouble, I wish to say, my wife had something of that kind and after using the doctors' remedies for some time concluded to try Chamberlain's Salve, and it proved to be better than anything she had tried. For Sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

CATCHING LITTLE FISH.

The continued story "Gambling Dens Wide Open" is still running in the newspapers, although most readers feel that it is dreadfully monotonous and as far from the climax as it was when the first instalment was published, away back in some forgotten year. There is still the same official theory afloat that "the poolroom system is smashed forever," and the same open secret that any youth who wants to can find a place within coin tossing range of his little iron savings bank where he may lose his money on any real or imaginary steed. If it were not so venerable, the story might be amusing. But, whether novel or stale, the anecdote published by the New York Tribune Tuesday about a Brooklyn magistrate, a patrolman and a gambling house throws upon some unpleasant facts a light too strong to excite the reader's risibilities.

To a patrolman who had dragged into court two "crap shooting youngsters Magistrate O'Reilly, of the Manhattan avenue court, said:

Instead of spending your time looking for small boys who are whiling away the vacation afternoons "shooting craps," why don't you go around to No. 9 Debevoise street and arrest the occupants of that house for gambling?

Rising from the Gr ve.

A prominent manufacturer, Wm. A. Fertwell, of Lucama, N. C., relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at E. S. The policeman mumbled that he didn't quite know why he hadn't visited the address given by the magistrate, which indicated that the particular house and the practices of its occupants were well known to the officer, who would quickly have disclaimed all knowledge, if possible.

The situation, then, is this: A city magistrate knows enough about a poolroom to speak openly about it in court; a policeman knows enough about it to leave its occupants unmolested; and the court episode has put the gamblers on the alert, making capture and conviction doubly difficult. Is it possible that intelligent citizens are utterly out of sympathy with anti-gambling laws and measures? That hypothesis might account for the combination of knowledge and laxity displayed in the Brooklyn court episode. If the magistrate seriously desired the capture and punishment of the Debevoise street gamesters he should not have given them warning by public references to their institution. Will some expert in conducting unveiling ceremonies kindly tell us whether or not an honest belief in the propriety of gambling explains the incident?

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 15, 1907.

IN THE New York stock market yesterday afternoon trading reached a close approach to panic conditions. With all the gain in the previous day's rally wiped out and the list generally selling at lower than panic prices, there came in the last hour of trading a frenzied rush to sell which swept everything before it. Only in the active stocks was it possible to sell, except at prices which were ridiculous concessions from prices of previous days. For many well-known and long established, though generally inactive, railroad and industrial securities there was practically no market at all. The exhausted nature of the purchasing power has not been as strikingly in evidence since the decline began, 10 years ago. Stocks in tremendous quantities were offered for sale, and the volume of transactions would have been very much greater had those desiring to sell been able in many cases to secure offers. Distrust of the government attitude toward the corporations, a threatened monetary stringency in all the leading markets of the world, and the financial embarrassment of the Pope Manufacturing Company combined to further demoralize the stock market. Prices melted in sensational fashion, and the average level of declines was below that reached in the memorable Northern Pacific panic of May, 1901. Those who some time since said the bottom in stocks had been reached are now dumbfounded as the shrinkage continues, and fortunes are swept away. These are troublesome times.

MR. PARR, director general of the Jamestown Exposition, will make every effort to have the government authorize opening the gates of the exposition on Sunday. He has written a letter to Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou, asking him to take up the matter at once. In the request of the Exposition Company to open on Sunday it is stated that 25 cents admission will be charged during the day and that none of the concessions would be opened. This request is not only a modest one but one which should be granted at once. There are many people in this busy age who have only Sunday to themselves and to such a visit to the exposition would be an interesting but harmless amusement and recreation. If people did nothing worse on Sunday than visit an exposition ground the world would be much better therefor.

A RUMOR is in circulation to the effect that every statement of importance contained in the two recent reports of Herbert Knox Smith, Commissioner of Corporations, arraigning the Standard Oil Company for its methods in business, was in the possession of Mr. George B. Cortelyou when he was chairman of the republican national committee, and in charge of the campaign of President Roosevelt in 1904. Still Mr. Roosevelt denounced as a "lie" Judge Parker's statement concerning the part played by trusts and combines during the last presidential election.

A DISPATCH from Mexico City says that news is hourly expected of an invasion of Nicaragua by Guatemalan troops. The trouble will also probably involve Salvador, as Guatemala's ally, and Honduras, as Nicaragua's fighting partner. The immediate cause of the strained relations is an old boundary dispute between Nicaragua and Guatemala. At the bottom of the threatened conflict, however, is the long talked of move to force a union of all the Central American republics. This has been a dream of certain South American enthusiasts for a long time.

SECRETARY TAFT is going to make what is considered an important speech, coming at this time, in which he will give his ideas regarding some important matters affecting his candidacy for the presidential nomination. He will defend the administration of President Roosevelt, holding that he is merely enforcing the laws placed on the statute books by congress, as it is his sworn duty to do and his enforcement is imparted as respects the rich and poor, as it should be.

NOTWITHSTANDING the insistent demand for a revision of the tariff at the next session of Congress, Speaker Cannon, who is in Washington says: "There will be no revision of the tariff by the Sixtieth Congress." No, nor by any other if Mr. Cannon has his way.

SENATOR BURROWS, of Michigan, in an interview at Kalamazoo, Mich., today predicted that the present strike of the operators, if continued any length of time, will result in the federal ownership of the lines.

Standard Declares Dividend.

New York, Aug. 15.—A dividend of $6 a share for the quarter was declared today by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. This makes the dividends so far this year $30. The previous dividend was $9 a share and was declared three months ago.

From Washington.

Washington, Aug. 15.

The administration is determined to go to the bottom of the Chicago and Alton case at Chicago, which relates to granting of rebates to the Standard Oil Company. Attorney General Bonaparte purposes to ascertain the exact scope of the immunity said to have been promised the officials of that railroad, before he decides what future course the Department of Justice will pursue. He announced today that he had arranged for a conference on the subject Monday, and has directed United States District Attorney Sims and former district attorney Morrison to meet him here at that time. "Until such a conference is held, no statement in regard to the matter involved, can, of conrse, be made," he said. He understood that certain testimony and statements were to be presented to him, and said they would receive careful examination and consideration.

General William Birney, a well known lawyer and soldier, who had been for many years a prominent resident of this city, died last night at his country home near Forest Glen, Md.

Roger Wetmore, son of United States Senator Wetmore, was arrested early this morning, charged with assaulting Mrs. Mary O. Chase, of 1501 R stree. Wetmore's automobile ran into the woman and she was knocked senseless. Wetmore was paroled until wanted.

Internal revenue receipts are steadily increasing. The aggregate for June was $23,124,311. This was an increase of $815,598 over the same month of the previous year and of $20,561,284 for the year. Increases on some of the more important articles were as follows:—Spirits, $712,220 for the month and $12,942,846 for the year; tobacco, $57,832 for the month and $3,388,072 for the year; fermented liquors, $31,732 for the month and $3 925,959 for the year; oleomargorine, $22,286 for the month and $317,603 for the year.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Profiting by a lesson to be learned from the dangers to the government in time of conflict of a general strike of telegraph operators, officials of the War and Navy Departments have begun to formulate a plan for extending the wireless system of the navy and the development of a complete system in the army, including army posts across the continent as well as on army transports, which will practically reach halfway around the globe.

While no official steps have been taken looking to this end, officials of the Bureau of Equipment of the Navy Department and of the Signal Corps of the army have taken it up seriously, and it is expected that a meeting of the joint army and navy board will be called shortly to consider the proposition and make recommendations for its being carried out.

In the meantime, it is expected that the government, through the War Department, will have the use of an extensive private system that is now being projected between New Orleans and other Atlantic coast ports and Cuba and Central America. This system is being established by the United Fruit Company and the War Department already has become interested in the project. While the first object of this company is to connect North and Central America with this system, once it is perfected through the Caribbean it will probably be extended to Tampa, Savannah, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

ZIONIST CONGRESS.

The eighth international Zionist congress opened at The Hague yesterday. Dr. David Wolffsohn, of Cologne, made the opening address. The attendance, which was large, included several delegates to the peace conference.

Dr. De Pinto, vice president of the Dutch court of cassation, welcomed the Zionists in behalf of the Jewish community of The Hague.

The congress has acquired special interest, owing to its being inaugurated while the peace conference is in session, and also because of significant passages in the speeches of the Zionist orators, especially the statements made by Dr. Max Nordau, president of the congress, regarding the peace conference. Dr. Nordau said it was impossible to reach real, lasting peace without first obtaining justice for the subject or persecuted races, among which, the Jews occupied the first place.

One of the Zionist delegates called attention to the "flaming enthusiasm of the Zionists, compared with the "indifferent, icy atmosphere of the peace conference," contending that it showed how strong the racial and national feelings still were and how far the world was from universal peace.

ASHES SCATTERED.

Just at high noon yesterday a score of men stood solemnly with bared heads in the rear of the ferryboat Arctic, of the Camden and Philadelphia line, while from a 10-ounce tin were scattered to the winds the ashes of Henry Van Zuillan, who had been esteemed and loved by the little band that attended the strange funeral.

B. F. Schroeder, a Camden undertaker, performed the ceremony. The ashes were emptied from a square tin. As they were spilled from the tin and were scattered in all directions over the water, Mr. Schroeder said:

"As much as it has pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to take out of this world the soul of Henry Van Zuillan, we, therefore, commit these ashes to the four winds of heaven and the waters of the Delaware in accordance with his last wish. Ashes to ashes and dust to dust."

Many passengers on the ferryboat gathered about the mourners. As the ashes were emptied into the river, the sun shone with a brilliancy that had not been observed for several days, but just as the last words of Mr. Schroeder were uttered the sun became overshadowed.

Probable Murder.

New York, Aug. 15.—Following the finding today of the body of Michael Staripo in the street in front of his home at Newton with his skull crushed and a deep knife wound in his chest, the police began a hunt for Basili Colimo. It was learned that Colimo has been with Staripo last night in a cafe where they seemed to be quarreling. Now he has disappeared. Fearing he would try to return to Italy a watch has been set on all the steamers leaving for southern Europe.

News of the Day.

Josef Joachim, long known as Germany's greatest violinist, died at Berlin today. He had been ill for a long time.

The rate of discount of the bank of England was raised by the directors today from 4 to 4½ per cent. The monetary situation on the continent and in New York as the cause.

The Maryland State republican convention at Baltimore yesterday nominated the following ticket. For Governor—George R. Gaither, of Baltimore City; Attorney General—Hammond Urner, of Frederick county; Comptroller—James H. Baker, of Kent county; Clerk of the Court of Appeals—Thomas Parran (renominated), of Calvert county.

A monument to Gen. Thomas Sumter, of revolutionary fame, and Congressman and Senator from South Carolina, was unveiled yesterday afternoon at Statesburg, near Sumter. The monument was built by an appropriation from the Legislature of South Carolina. Governor Ansel, South Carolina, presided and introduced the orator of the occasion, Hon. A. J. Montague, former Governor of Virginia.

David F. Evans, President of the Maryland Telephone Company, died at St Josephs Hospital, Baltimore, this morning. Death was due to peritonitis.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS.

Helen Brush, aged six years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Brush, of Susquehanna, Pa., is dead; Francis Griffin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Griffin, seriously injured; Harry G. Brush is at home suffering from a broken leg; Mrs. Brush is in a serious state of collapse and Thomas Boylin is suffering from slight injuries as the result of an automobile accident, which occurred near Susquehanna last night. The machine, which was a large Cadillac car, owned by Mr. Brush, went over an embankment 175 feet high, and plunged into the Susquehanna river. Mr. Brush was held in the machine. His two little girls were crushed and bruised, being hurled against trees and other objects. Boylin escaped by jumping when the car first started down the bank. Mrs. Brush's condition is caused by news of the accident. Mr. Brush purchased the car about three weeks ago and was running it alone for the second time.

Two persons were killed and four injured, one of them dangerously, in an automobile accident near Bernardsville, N. J., yesterday afternoon.

The chauffeur lost control of the machine while it was running at high speed and it dashed into a telegraph pole. The auto was partly demolished and the occupants were hurled out. Two were dead when picked up, the skulls of both having been crushed.

THE MECHANICS' STRIKE.

With the importation yesterday of more first-class mechanics from Philadelphia and New York, the Employers' Association of Washington claims a victory over the building trades. According to official records of the association, there are now employed on local buildings fifty-one outside mechanics, who have been recruited within the last few days to fill vacancies created by strikers.

It was announced by the Employers' Association yesterday that they have more men then they can use, and that already there is a large waiting list. Building operations throughout the city, the employers say, are progressing satisfactorily, and it is asserted that there is little possibility of the strike interfering further with the construction of the buildings now going up.

The battle for supremacy between the two organizations has been waged bitterly for some time. Every effort has been made by the building trades, it is asserted, to tie up work on all buildings where nonunion labor was employed. Mechanics were imported and put to work on the buildings where the union men had struck. Gradually the places of the strikers have been filled, and yesterday it was officially announced by the association that the places of all strikers had been taken care of.

MAN AND WOMAN KILLED.

One man was shot and instantly killed and a girl was shot dead in Floyd county, Ky., Tuesday.

Samuel Arnett and Thomas Sheppard, mountaineers, went to the home of Samuel Stephens and attempted to abduct 17-year-old Nora Stephens. She fought the men as best she could and broke away from them, succeeding in getting into the house. The two men then began firing at the dwelling in an effort to kill the occupants.

William Stephens, brother of the girl, answered from the house with a pistol and killed Arnett, whereupon Sheppard ran away. Later he returned and attempted again to force the girl away. She once more fought him, and he shot her through the body with a .44-caliber pistol. As she fell he placed the pistol to her mouth and sent a bullet into her brain, killing her instantly.

Sheppard fled to the mountains, and a posse, armed with guns and a rope, are after him. If he is caught he will certainly be lynched. A reward of $500 has been offered for him.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

Passenger train No. 8, between Asheville and Lake Toxaway, N. C., which was being run as an excursion, and had between 300 and 400 passengers on board was overturned yesterday afternoon while ascending a heavy mountain grade five miles beyond Brevard.

The entire train of five cars and engine left the track and rolled down a small embankment. No one was killed, but fifteen persons were injured.

It was the most miraculous escape of passengers and trainmen that has ever been known on the Southern Railway. The train was stopped by Baggagemaster Hannah, of Asheville, who applied the emergency brakes just as the engine had started to cross a trestle 200 feet high. The accident was due to spreading of the track.

Twelve persons were injured between Sadler and Reidsville, N. C., early yesterday when a Southern passenger collided with the rear end of a freight train. It is alleged the operator at Reidsville erred in giving the passenger train a clear track.

For an Impaired Appetite.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says: "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Gibson & Timberman's and W. F. Creighton & Co's.

Virginia News.

Mr. John Smoot died at his home in Leesburg on Sunday night, after a long illness of consumption, in about the 65th year of his age.

Mrs. Margaret Love died at the home of Mr. D. W. Coakley, in Stafford, Tuesday evening, aged 60 years. She had recently lost her mind.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Howard M. Anderson, of Fairfax county, and Minnie May Griffin, of Loudoun county.

The disagreement between the members of the State board of Agriculture and Commissioner Koiner has been passed up to the attorney general for decision. The board seems to have become jealous of the credit that has been given to Commissioner Koiner.

Sweeping changes in the system of keeping the State accounts, the abolition of two or more officers, and the creation of new ones, will result from the examination of the books and the accounts of the State, by a special committee appointed by the last legislature for that purpose.

Julian Nalle Major, of Fauquier county, has accepted a position as instructor in a military academy in China, under the supervision of the Protestant Episcopal Church of this country. Mr. Major graduated in the 1907 class from the Virginia Military Institute. He sailed yesterday for Shanghai.

Yesterday passed without any repetition of the race riot which has resulted in putting Onancock under military protection. The soldiers sent there by Gov. Swanson continue to patrol the streets, and it is not believed that further trouble with the negroes will occur so long as the militiamen remain there.

Leonard Powell, son of James Powell, residing near Salem Church, in Spottsylvania county, committed suicide Tuesday night by shooting himself in the head with a .32-caliber revolver. He was left at home with some young children while his parents attended a nearby church. The only cause ascribed for the deed is a former love affair. It is said that the lady in the case died last year.

The Virginia State Farmers' Institute adjourned last night, after an address by Dr. Barringer, president of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, on "The Transformation of the South." Today the delegates were taken to the Jamestown Exposition. The leading subject yesterday afternoon was "Good Roads," and the farmers evinced much interest in it. The following officers were elected: T. O. Sandy, of Burkeville, president; J. Lucien Moormaw, of Botetourt, secretary and treasurer; J. M. Williams, of Roanoke, assistant secretary.

STOLE HER POCKET BOOK.

Mrs. Eleanora Specht, wife of the Rev. Joseph Specht, who was pastor of a church at Upper Marlboro, Md., several years ago and chaplain of the Washington Lodge of Elks, has reported to the police of the second precinct, in Washington, that she was assaulted and robbed of $87 Sunday night. Her story is that Sunday night she returned from a visit to Alexandria, and on her way to see a laundress, about 10 o'clock reached the corner of 14th and P streets.

Leaving the corner of 14th and P streets, Mrs. Specht says, she started west and stopped near the Riggs market to fasten her shoe string. Just as she raised her head, she said, a colored man threw red pepper in her eyes, grabbed her purse and walked away. She told Sergt. Flather that after this painful experience she walked to the Riggs House, where she lives, and called for her family physician. He was not at home at the time and she bathed her eyes in milk.

She recovered from the effects of the pepper without the assistance of a physician.

Mrs. Specht's father-in-law formerly lived at Gunston, a few miles below Alexandria, and owned considerable property in St. Louis. Her husband is not living here, having gone out west some time ago.

WILL NOT INTERFERE.

President Roosevelt yesterday refused to interfere personally in the telegraphers' strike. A dispatch from the Chicago Board of Trade asking the President to take a personal hand in this great emergency has been referred to Commissioner of Labor Neill. Appeals to the President to take some action looking to a settlement of a strike were received at the executive office at Oyster Bay, from boards of trade and commercial bodies of a large number of cities. The applications were similar in character to those formulated yesterday by the Chicago Board of Trade. Each emphasized the importance of direct action by the President. The communications have all been referred to Commissioner Neill. It is understood that no instructions or recommendations have been forwarded to Mr. Neill. From the first Mr. Neill has been active in an endeavor to effect a settlement of the trouble.

THE BUSH MEETING.

As we go to press on Wednesday the big meeting at Purcellville is drawing to a close, after one of the most successful meetings in its history, covering a period of thirty years. Through the untiring efforts of the Secretary, Mr. C. C. Gaver, and President, D. J. Hoge, and the other officers of the Association, everything went off smoothly, and according to promise our people heard the best orators and other talent to be secured, and the large crowds were handled and entertained in a manner most creditable to their management of one of the largest Assemblies in the South.

One of the most interesting days of the meeting is Patriotic Day, which is now in progress. Among the speakers is Hon. C. C. Carlin.—[Loudoun Mirror.

THE TELEGRAPHERS' STRIKE.

General Superintendant Brooks, of the Western Union, says he will insist on the railroads carrying out contracts to handle commercial messages.

Officials of the transportation lines refuse to order their telegraphers to handle outside business.

It is believed that the heads of the railroads would rather violate contracts than precipitate a struggle with 40,000 telegraphers.

Union men are out in 100 leading cities.

The general strike order was not issued yesterday owing to the non-arrival of President S. T. Small at Chicago.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Striking Telegraphers.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—The telegraph companies insist that they are handling business in good shape, although the strikers claim that business is seriously handicapped.

Arbitration is still indignantly spurned by both sides. It is evident today that the fight is going to be a long siege and no trifling skirmish. Whether the union or the companies has the better staying qualities will determine the victory. Meanwhile the public is enacting the favorite role of "innocent bystander."

Chicago, Aug, 15.—Samuel Gompers and the executive board of the Commercial Telegraphers Union held a conferance at strike headquarters today, and discussed a plan of action in connection with the strike to be taken to Washington by Gompers and placed before the National Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor.

New York, Aug. 15.—"So far as we are concerned the strike is over," said President Clowry today. Other officials of his company and Vice President Nally of the Postal Company gave out by far the most confident statements since the walk-out. "We have them beaten to a finish," said the officials of both companies. With regard to the local situation, the outward and visible signs seemed to indicate that the statement was correct. Messages, however, are not being received except under conditions of indefinite delay for Louisiana and Mississippi.

New York, Aug. 15.—State Attorney General Jackson arrived in New York today and is believed to be in conference with officials of the local telegraphers' union.

Boston, Aug. 15.—An attempt to bring the printers into the telegraphers' strike was made today when the typographers' union was asked to forbid its members to set messages received over the Western Union and Postal wires. This appeal came after a long meeting lasting until after one o'clock this morning. The printers' organization has not yet sent its answer, but individuals say that, while in sympathy with the telegraphers, they have no way of knowing the source of the copy they receive and that so long as newspapers they work for observe the union rules they cannot refuse to put in type whatever comes to them.

Another result of last night's meeting was the order that all operators of the Associated Press who remained at work after midnight had been classed strikebreakers.

The War in Morocco.

Gibraltar, Aug. 15.—From Mehediah to Cape Nun practically every foreigner has been driven out of Morocco. Robbed of all their possessions and subjected to brutalities of which the world has learned nothing as yet, the hapless victims of the Moors were glad to escape with their lives.

Following the news of the assault on Casablanca natives swarmed through the foreign quarters of every city. Goods were boldly carried away under the very eyes of the owners. Any one who offered the slightest resistance or even protested was beaten. In some instances, it is claimed, women were brutally whipped and several men were left dying when fugitives fled for safety to some ship in the harbor.

Having forced the foreigners to flee the Moors became bolder. Many houses were burned. Others were torn down, the Moors believing money or valuables had been hidden in the walls.

In several of the towns the fugitives could reach no steamers on which to escape at the time the outbreaks began.

Riotous Proceedings.

New York, Aug. 15.—Starting in a dispute between a street car conductor and a passenger, a full sized riot suddenly blossomed out today in a Hamburg Avenue car culminating in the probable fatal wounding of one man and the severe injury of a score of others, either in the melee or at the hands of police. While the riot was in progress, the motorman ran the car for two miles and a half to the car barns where employes came to the rescue of the hard pressed conductor. The car was crowded to the running boards when it pulled out of Canarsie. The quarrel started almost immediately. Some of the passengers sided with the conductor, but the majority took the part of his opponent and words gave way to blows. When he saw he could do nothing else the motorman put on full speed and rushed the car to the carbarns. There a score of employes came to the assistance of the conductor only to be met with an attack from the entire car load of passengers. In the melee Richard O'Connell, car employe, was stabbed three times in the back.

Shot by a Woman.

Youngstown, O., Aug. 15.—Miss Mabina Kelley, a pretty 20 years old nurse, is today locked up in the Central Police station, awaiting the result of injuries she inflicted last night on Dave Job, 28, her brother-in-law. Miss Kelley says Job has annoyed her and her mother since the death of Miss Kelley's sister, Job's wife, four years ago. To escape Job's attentions Miss Kelley left home and worked at the West Pennsylvania Hospital, Pittsburg. A short time ago she returned to Youngstown and resumed her position in the city hospital. Job entered the house last night. His sister-in-law ordered him out. He refused to leave. Miss Kelley fired at him, but missed. She then hid the revolver in her trunk. Job summoned a policeman and went to the girl's room with the officer. Miss Kelly took the revolver from the trunk, reached around the policeman and shot Job in the stomach. "I shot in defense of my home," she explained.

Remedy for Diarrhoea. Never Known to Fail.

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I can not saying too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. JEMISON, Spring Grove York county, Pa. This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

King Edward in Austria.

Ischl, Austria, Aug. 15.—King Edward is being hugged and kissed like an August bride these days. Yesterday the English monarch was the guest of Kaiser William and the first act of the Kaiser was to kiss his royal uncle on both cheeks. Today Edward crossed into Austria to be the guest of Emperor Francis Joseph. The greeting he received from the Austrian ruler was a kiss of each cheek which he returned. For two hours today the monarchs were in secret conference on the Macedonian situation and measures to be taken to meliorate the condition of Macedonians are being considered. At noon a state banquet was served in King Edward's honor and tonight a gala performance of the opera "La Traviata" will be given. Tomorrow King Edward will proceed to Marianbad to take his annual cure.

Sent to Grand Jury.

New York, Aug. 15.—Frank Warner, was held to the grand jury today on the charge of killing Esther Norling and John O. Wilson, a wealthy hatter, after a brief inquest. Warner, whose sensational action in shooting Miss Norling, eluding the police, making his way from Forty-second street to Waverly Place and killing Wilson within a few hours, today said: "I am in a feeble state of health and mind. I am unable to defend myself." Pactiman Walsh, who was discharged for cowardice because he allowed Warner to escape after killing the young woman, was summoned, but did not appear. The jury found that Warner committed both murders. The vote was taken by the jurors without leaving their seats.

Husband and Wife Shot.

New York Aug. 15.—As the result of domestic differences George Wassmer and his wife Gertrude, of 2058 Third avenue, are today in Harlem Hospital with probably fatal injuries. Mrs. Wassmer was shot by her husband, but there is some doubt whether a bullet wound in Wassmer's head was self-inflicted or was received at the hands of his daughter, Madeline, who is under arrest on suspicion. Detective Scott found Mrs. Wassmer badly wounded on the kitchen floor and Wassmer in the parlor with a bullet hole it his head. Madeline acknowledged she had shot her father, but as there was some doubt whether Wassmer had shot himself she was not charged with the shooting.

The Rate War.

New York, Aug. 15.—Former Judge Montgomery of North Carolina, acting as special master, is taking depositions here today in the proceedings to settle the rate war between the federal and State courts in North Carolina.

The hearing is behind closed doors at the office of the Secretary of the Southern Railway here. Witnesses are being heard and the railway is represented by General Council Alfred P. Thom.

Much importance is attached to the hearing as the question of States rights is generally conceded to be seriously involved.

One Hundred Persons Killed.

Berlin, Aug. 15.—Fully 100 persons were killed or injured today by the explosion of a large dynamite factory at Doemitz on the Elbe river. Part of the town was destroyed and the inhabitants have been ordered to leave for fear there there will be further explosions. Many workmen were busy in the factory when the explosion occurred. Several were blown to bits. Workmen in other parts of the factory were injured by the falling walls and ceilings. It is feared many of the injured will die.

Alleged Kidnapper Caught.

New York, Aug. 15.—What is said by the Hoboken police to be a plot to rush a child kidnapped from well-to-do parents in Philadelphia abroad to be held for a ransom was nipped in the bud today when Andrew Katruck was arrested as he was boarding the Hamburg-American liner Bleucher with a four-year-old child. The greatest secrecy is maintained as to the child and its parents. The arrest, however, was made on advice of the Philadelphia chief of police.

Steamer Lost.

Launceton, Tasmania, Aug. 15.—A terrible maritime disaster has occurred off Strahan or Macquarie harbor. The local steamer Karawatie, bearing a large number of passengers, has been wrecked. Few details have reached here, but scores of the passengers are reported to have been drowned.

Rescued at Sea.

Quarantine, S. I., Aug. 15.—The White Star Line steamship Teutonic arrived today from Southampton, Cherbourg and Queenstown. William Hodge, a coal trimmer, fell overboard August 11. The alarm was given, the steamship stopped, a boat was lowered and the man picked up in a short time.

A Valuable Lesson.

In a Critical Condition.

Versailles, France, Aug. 15.—A sudden and unexpected change for the worse has occurred in the condition of the three children of the late Major Henry Huntington, an American, who were shot at the bedside of their dying father by their brother Henry. It is feared all will die.

Letter to Treasurer Robinson

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: Paint goes by gallons. There are useful and useless gallons. Useful paint is lead-zinc-and-oil with dryer and color; useless paint is whiting, china-clay, ground stone, barytes, benzine or water.

This stuff is put in, because it is cheap, to stuff out the paint, to make more gallons to sell; of course, the buyer doesn't suspect, or he wouldn't buy it.

It costs as much to brush on this useless stuff as lead-zinc-and-oil; but it looks like that and feels like that in the brush; the painter doesn't suspect it. Besides, if the owner is willing, why should the painter object to painting two gallons for one? He is paid by the day; more gallons, more days, more money.

Average paint at full price is about one-third this useless stuff; and average paint at $1.25 or $1.50 or $1.75 a gallon is two-thirds trash. Fool paint is the proper name for all but pure paint; it is made to fool people with. Knave paint is another good name; it is made, of course, by knaves. Sick paint is a name for an honest weak paint. They are all weak and all extravagant; too many gallons to buy and too many gallons to brush-on. Devoe is the standard.

Yours truly,
41 F W DEVOE & Co.

Governor Comer Challenged.

Montgomery, Aug. 15.—Governor Comer received a challenge today in the form of an announcement that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad had obtained from United States Judge Jones an order restaining the State from forcing the new commodity freight rate law and the 2 1-2 cent passenger law until they have been passed upon by the federal courts. All State officials were restrained from making any arrests of agents of the company for violating of the new laws. Gov. Comer had previously announced that he would arrest and prosecute all officials violation the new laws, despite the action of federal courts.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 15.—Wall street interests today manifested the greatest uneasiness shown since the pending slump in stocks began. Yesterday it was predicted before the market opened that the market would receive substantial support. This failed to materialize. Today's opening when many issues showed sharp declines at the start, followed by rallies, indicated the lack of confidence and the fear of further declines.

Great importance is attached in some quarters to the announcement that J. Pierpont Morgan is sailing for New York. It is intimated market conditions have called him back. His arrival is being eagerly awaited as it is believed his resourcefulness will aid materially in straightening out affairs.

The stock market was full of buying orders at the opening, but these orders were at price limits good way below yesterday's figures in the majority of cases and the extreme declines of the first few minutes were caused by frantic efforts of brokers with selling orders to make sales. At the end of the first hour the selling pressure decreased and many of the buying orders remained unexecuted. There were plenty of stories about the formation of pools to support the market. There was a good deal of covering of shorts, and it was this covering that was responsible for the sharp rally before the end of the hour.

In the late trading a stronger tone was developed and prices before the beginning of last hour were the highest of the day.

ATTEMPT FRUSTRATED.

George Midgets, colored, in jail in Fredericksburg, condemned to be hanged for the murder of Charles T. Smith in this city on the 20th of last October, came very near effecting his escape from jail and if his work had not been detected by City Sergeant Chichester on Tuesday evening he would probably have been at large by Wednesday morning. Tuesday Sergeant Chichester was examining the exterior of the jail, when he discovered two small holes in the wall and below them on the ground piece of newly cut brick and whitewash, outside of Midgets' cell. His suspicions were at once aroused, and he quickly went into the jail and into Midgets' cell, and made an examination. He discovered that Midgets had cut away a two-inch white oak board, 18 inches wide and 21 inches long, with which the cell is sealed, and had started to cut away the two-and-a-half foot wall of the building, which would have given him an outlet in the alley next to the outer wall of the jail.

This work Midgets had carefully concealed with his clothes and a blanket hung up against the wall, in a manner which did not excite suspicion. Midgets acknowledged he had done the work and said, "It is lucky you got on today as I would have been out to-morrow."

He was taken out of the cell and put in another close cell, where he is safe from a second attempt. On his cell being searched there was discovered in his bed a hatchet and several sharp instruments, which he used. He stated that a colored tramp, who was locked up for trespass on the R., F. & P. R. R. had given him the tools to work with through the bars of his cell.

He also stated he had two plans to get out. One was to kill the sergeant with the hatchet, take the keys and escape; the other, which he adopted, was to dig out through the walls. He flew into a violent temper when his plans were discovered. It is not believed that the tramp brought the hatchet and knives in with him, but that they were handed in the jail by a confederate. Midgets is now closely guarded.—[Fredericksburg Star.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

Charles Johnson, colored, who said he was from Providence, R. I., was arrested about 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening on the charge of passing two forged checks for small amounts on merchants throughout the city. When searched at police headquarters Johnson had on his person half a dozen checks on the First National Bank, some of them payable to Charles Johnson and some to Charles Mason, and bearing the alleged signatures of William A. Smoot & Co., and the Mutual Ice Company. Five of the checks were for $8 and the other for $4. Johnson represented himself as having worked a short while for W. A. Smoot & Co. and the Mutual Ice Company. He presented himself at Herbert Beach's store, on north Royal street, yesterday, and after making a small purchase offered a check and asked for the change. A young man named Brawner, who waited on him, refused to accept the check, and telephoned to W. A. Smoot & Co's. office to know if it was genuine. He was told that it was not, and when he saw the negro on the street later in the day pointed him out to Chief Goods. It is believed the same man has recently been operating in Washington.

Johnson was arraigned in the Police Court this morning. He said he obtained the checks from a white man named Robert Nesbit, but he had previously told other stories. Justice Caton sent him on to the grand jury.

NO APPEAL FROM VERDICT.

An opinion in the appeal made by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to the District of Columbia Commissioners, asking that the verdict of the trial board, which declared Capt. Matthews and Lieut. Mulhall, of Washington not guilty of the charges made against them in connection with the accidental death of Hugh Murphy, of this city, the Southern Railway engineer, last September, was submitted to the Commissions yesterday by Corporation Counsel Thomas.

He holds that the right to appeal is not given to third parties, and that he is unable to find any authority of law which authorizes the commissioners to entertain the appeal of the brotherhood. He advises the refusal solely on the ground of want of jurisdiction in the commissioners, and says that if there be error in the conclusion of the trial board, the brotherhood has its remedy in the courts by mandamus.

HORSE SHOW ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of those interested in the organization of a driving club and horse show association in this city met at the old St. Asaph race track at 5 o'clock yesterday evening. Mr. Charles H. Lowenbach presided at the meeting. A committee composed of Messrs. C. J. Rixey, James Patterson and P. T. Harrington was appointed to confer with the owners of the track with a view to securing a lease of the property for from one to five years, with an option of purchasing. The meeting was adjourned until Friday evening when a report will be received from the committee. It is the intention of those back of the movement to effect a permanent organization and hold horse shows at the track.

LOST POCKETBOOK.

Mrs. Grace Ford yesterday afternoon dropped her pocketbook, containing $368, near the intersection of Duke and St. Asaph streets. She did not miss it until she had gotten several blocks away and she retraced her steps, but could not find it. It is believed that it was picked up by a colored man who passed that point just behind Mrs. Ford. The latter notified the police and they are endeavoring to identify the finder.

The feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin was today celebrated in St. Mary's Church, services being held at 6 and 8:30 o'clock this morning.

PARADING IN NIGHT ATTIRE.

Yesterday afternoon a woman, apparently about 35 years of age, reached the union depot on a Southern Railway passenger train. It is said that she came from Catlett's station. She directed a man having charge of a carriage to take her to a public house. Upon arriving there she paid the landlady a week's board in advance, and soon after started to make herself at home by going from room to room and occasionally using the piano. After dark her actions savored of the erratic, and the stranger became an annoyance to other persons in the house. She was noisy and after retiring to her room knocked on the door at times and succeeded in keeping everybody else in the house awake most of the night. Between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning, the woman, attired in her nightgown, and with that partly buttoned, left the house and started for a walk through the streets. The police station was notified and Lieutenant Bettis and Officer Young started in search of the woman. Sometime later the officers saw her gliding like a phantom down a quiet street almost in the centre of the city and took her in charge. She was very loquacious as long as she was allowed to do all the talking, but it was impossible to obtain from her any information concerning herself. She refused to give her name or to state positively where she came from. The officers conducted her back to the public house, and as she was in a highly excitable condition, it was deemed prudent to send for a physician. Dr. Smith responded, and upon diagnosing the case immediately ordered moderate doses of the "hair of the dog." The woman improved as soon as she swallowed the first dose. Between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning Lieutenant Smith had an interview with her (the mistress of the house being desirous of getting rid of her as soon as possible). The woman received the lieutenant in her nightgown, and was as loquacious as ever, but refused positively to give her name. She said she was born in Pittsburg, Pa., but had lived in Richmond most of her life. She mentioned names of several prominent people in the latter place, giving the streets and the numbers of houses in which they resided. She also said she had been married and was the mother of one child, but did not say where her husband and child are located. The woman claimed to have lost about $30 while in the house, and Lieutenant Smith later found $12 in a stocking she had left on the floor of her room. In reply to questions concerning her convivial propensities, she said when she drank stimulants she preferred straight whisky. At times the woman gave vent to genuine "cuss" words. Lieutenant Smith later found a railroad ticket from Catlett's station and a bottle containing a pint of whisky under the bed clothes of the room occupied by the woman. She had a prayer book on the bed with her in which was a card bearing the name of G. A. Massie, who is said to be connected with an association in Washington which procures employment for females. Lieutenant Smith later in the day took the woman in charge and, placing her in a carriage, conducted her to police headquarters. The landlady of the boarding house had previously refunded the money she had paid in advance for her board. A minor charge was made against the woman, but it is understood that when she is in a proper condition she will be dismissed upon promising to leave the city. The prescription of Dr. Smith is still being cautiously served the prisoner.

DEATH OF CAPT. S. H. BARRY.

Capt. Samuel H. Barry died Tuesday morning at his home, in Baltimore. He was born in Alexandria, and was the son of the late James Casey Barry and Martha M. Barry, and a brother of the late James Casey Barry, jr., and the late Rev. Joseph L. Barry, all of Baltimore.

When a youth he took to sea and at an early age he did service as an officer on a sailing vessel plying between Baltimore and Liverpool, in the interest of Alexander Brown & Sons, and later to Europe, China, Japan, South America and East and West Indies. In 1849 he went to California during the gold fever. During the Civil War he was a Confederate political prisoner, and was confined at Fort McHenry and Fort Lafayette, N. Y., for nearly a year.

DEATH OF MR. FAULCONER.

Mr. William E. Faulconer died at the Alexandria Hospital last night after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Faulconer was a native of Yorkville, S. C., where his parents now reside, and was about thirty years old. He came to this city several years ago from Charlottesville, where he resided for some time, and entered the employ of Mr. W. F. Brookes, merchandise broker, with whom he continued until ill health compelled him to relinquish his position. During his residence in Alexandria Mr. Faulconer made many friends, who will regret to learn of his death. He was a nephew of Mrs. Henry Fairfax Robertson, of this city. The remains were sent to Yorkville by Mr. B. Wheatly for interment.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Toots Olden, charged with vagrancy, was held.

Charles Johnson, colored, charged with forgery, was sent on to the grand jury.

CHOICE CIGARS.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Pettey Cigar Company elsewhere in the Gazette. This firm has been in business about six months, and is manufacturing some of the best grades—second to none—of cigars in this section of the country. Besides "Our Congressman" brand the firm also manufactures other brands as follows:—"Chief Belt," "Plantation," "Southern Plantation," "Alexandria," "Happy Family" and "Lady Lillie," besides several out of town brands. Begining September 1st, this firm will put another popular brand on the market and will make special brands for several business houses during the fall. The goods put on the market by the Pettey Company are of excellent quality and for an after dinner smoke "Our Congressman" cannot be beat.

Hunting for Trouble,

"I've lived in California 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Alleghany, Sierra Co. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 25c.

BASEBALL.

The Alexandria Athletic Association baseball team will play the Luna Park nine tomorrow evening on the old fair grounds. The Alexandrias battery will be Kraft and Wilkerson and that of the Luna Park team will be Weaver and Clark. A good game is promised. On Saturday evening the Alexandria baseball team plays the Dolphins, of Baltimore, one of the strongest teams of that city. The game will be called at 4:30 o'clock. Donaldson and Kraft will be the Alexandria battery. The Alexandria team did not play the Herndon nine yesterday, as scheduled, the game having been postponed until next Wednesday.

The Y. M. A. C. baseball team, of this city, and the H. A. C., of Washington, will play a game of baseball on the fair grounds this evening at 5 o'clock.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mr. W. H. Greenwell will take place from St. Mary's Church tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. The pallbearers will be Messrs. Thomas Hoy, T. W. Robinson, Wm. H. Sweeney, Thomas Burroughs, Thomas L. Carter and C. R. Yates.

The funeral of the late D. McC. Ramsay, who died at Arcola, Loudoun county, yesterday, will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow evening from the W. & O. depot upon the arrival of the train from Leesburg.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary A. McCuen will take place at 4:30 o'clock this evening from the residence, on north Alfred street. The services will be conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter.

THE VIRGINIA GLASS PLANT.

It is understood that a number of business men of Baltimore and Washington have perfected negotiations for the purchase or lease of the Virginia glass plant in West End and will at an early day remodel the plant, put it in first class condition and run it to its full capacity. Since the fire at that plant a few years ago but little work has been done there and the prospect of a resumption of work will be gratifying to all interested in the plant. It is said that while Baltimoreans and Washingtonians will control the plant the operations will be under the supervision of Messrs. Boardman and Aystrike, two practical glass operators, who were connected with the Virginia Glass Company several years ago.

RAMBLERS' CLUB.

The Ramblers' Club will leave here this evening for Jamestown on the schooner Laurena E. Bramble, Capt. Keith Davis. This is the fifth annual outing for this club and promises to be the finest trip ever taken by them. The members expect to arrive at Jamestown by Sunday and will remain there for two or three days. From there they will go to Norfolk for a stay of a day or two before starting for home. The party will stop at Piney Point, St. Georges' Island, Blackistone Island and Colonial Beach. The entire trip will consume from fifteen to twenty days. The club will carry three cooks and a barber.

CHARTERS.

The following charters have been granted by the Corporation Commission:

Auto Sales and Garage Company (Inc.) Alexandria. W. P. Barnhart, president, Washington; C. T. Diggs, secretary, Washington; H. I. Quinn, treasurer, Washington. Capital: Maximum, $15,000; minimum, $1,500. Objects: Automobile business.

International Auto Sightseeing and Transit Company (Inc.) Alexandria. W. P. Barnhart, president; C. F. Diggs, H. I. Quinn, all of Washington. Capital: Maximum, $100,000; minimum, $500. Objects: Automobile Company.

MR. CATON THE NOMINEE.

Under the plan of the democratic committees of this city and county the time given candidates to file notice of their candidacy for the House of Delegates expires today and as no one but Mr. J. R. Caton, the present incumbent, has filed such notice he will be declared the nominee of the party and no primary for the office will be held. Mr. Caton has for several years past ably represented this district in the Legislature and his return to that body without opposition shows that his services have been appreciated by his constituents.

DOG CART.

The dog cart reappeared yesterday afternoon and today and visited certain localities where a number of vagrant curs were captured and carried to the city jail yard where they will be dispatched should their redeemers fail to appear. The wagon, in charge of William Sisson, jr., assisted by William Dean, made a visit to the southeastern section of the city this morning and captured seven dogs. After the animals had been placed in the jail yard the wagon invaded the northeastern section of the city.

GASOLINE STOVE EXPLODES.

The alarm of fire shortly before one o'clock this afternoon was caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove at the residence of Mr. Frank Power, 311 north Pitt street. The damage to the house was slight, but Miss Florence Pulman, daughter of Mr. Garbutt Pulman, living at the corner of Pitt and Queen streets, who was in the house at the time, was seriously burned. Miss Pulman was painfully burned by a gasoline stove several months ago.

ALLEGED RELIC HUNTERS.

Mr. James Deane, sexton of Christ Church, says that the chipping of the foundation stones of that edifice was done by a boy using a hatchet as George Washington is said to have wielded on a cherry tree. Mr. Dean rejects the suggestion that the chipping was done by relic-hunters.

THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 15, 1907.

ASTOR HAS AN HEIR.

Mrs. Waldorf Astor, formerly Miss Nannie Langhorne, is the mother of a fine son, born at the Astor home, Cliveden, near London.

Mrs. Astor is a daughter of C. D. Langhorne, for years a resident of Richmond, and is a sister of Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, and also of Mrs. Moncure D. Perkins, of Richmond. The Langhorne sisters are noted for their beauty. In 1897 Nannie Langhorne married Robert Gould Shaw, 2d, of Boston, and obtained a divorce from him in February, 1903. They separated immediately after the Albemarle Horse Show, in August, 1902, Mrs. Shaw returning to her father at his country seat, Mirador, near Charlottesville, Va., where she had been married.

Mrs. Astor's engagement to her present husband was the outcome of an aquaintance formed on a trans-Atlantic liner in 1905. Later young Astor and the then Mrs. Shaw were members of the same hunting party in Warwickshire, and it was there the engagement was arranged. They were married very quietly in London on May 3, 1906.

Waldorf Astor, although born in New York 29 years ago, has spent most of his life in England, where his father had become a British subject. He was educated at the Oxford University, took part in athletics, became captain of the polo team and conducted himself as a well-bred, modest young fellow.

As an eldest son, Waldorf Astor will some day inherit a large part of one of the greatest American fortunes, largely invested in New York real estate, beside much property more recently acquired by his father in England. William Waldorf Astor's fortune is estimated at fully $400,000,000 and is growing rapidly. The baby just born, being also an eldest son, is likely to inherit some hundreds of millions of dollars. He will, if he lives, be almost fabulously wealthy.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—SAM G. GWIN, Concord, Ga. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher, of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind. This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Guaranteed under the food and drugs act June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1098.

FINANCIAL.

To know about a Bank when you decide to entrust it with your savings is its record for conservative management and the protection offered depositors by its capital stock. You will find the Virginia Safe Deposit & Trust Corporation a safe, sound and conservative institution, backed by successful business men and a directory composed of men who devote care and attention to its management. This institution is in every way progressive as its steady increase in deposits will indicate, its total resources amount to nearly $900,000, and its success is attributed largely to the fact that it has been liberal with its depositors. Why not open a savings account with us? We pay 3 PER CENT. interest compounded in our Savings Department and solicit your account however small the amount.
